

Instructors Availability and Pricing for the 2022/2023 Season Each instructor has limited availability, if the choice of instructor is not available an opportunity to work with another suitable instructor will be offered.

Your application to our solo, duo, trio program offers choices of instructors from our faculty or guest choreographers. All package fees include creating your choreography plus six hours of dance instruction. Specific details will be provided upon acceptance into the program. To learn more about the program details visit www.nsad.ca

All Half Day Program students are required to participate in either a solo, duo or trio. We can assist in pairing with a suitable partner(s). For optimal rehearsal times and coaching we recommend pairing with dancers within the same program.
